

As a proud American, I would be very upset to see the ban on cross-ownership lifted. America is founded on capitalist ideals and part of this ideal is the elimination of monopolistic practices. Please keep this ban in place so that smaller media companies have a chance of surviving and thriving.